The County Treasurer,
DuPage County, Illinois.

Wheaton, Ill., Dec 20 1895

TO COLLECTORS:

Dear Sir.—You will please read the warrant in back of collector's book carefully.

Be particular in collecting all personal property tax.

Give no extension beyond time specified in your warrant.

I will notify you when to settle with me, and shall require prompt attention on the day appointed.

Will send you the necessary blanks in due time. And you will please be particular in making out your returns, have all columns footed up, and see that accounts balance. Enter on delinquent list in rotation same as on your book.

Delinquent lands first.

Town lots second.

Personal property (if any) last; and be sure and state reason for non-payment of personal taxes.

By complying with these requests you will save yourself and me much trouble.

Respectfully,

J. W. McKee
~~A. H. FAIRBANK~~

Treasurer, DuPage County, Illinois.

Paste this in your collector's book for reference.

NOTICE TO TOWNSHIP COLLECTORS.

Wheaton, Dec. 189

When there is personal property tax and no real estate, please collect the tax. In case the tax cannot be collected, show the tax to your Supervisor and have him approve the same, so there will be no trouble in abatement.

Yours Respectfully,

J. W. McKEE, Co. Treas'r.
